Acknowledgements

The Township of Bruce Historical Society thanks Lynn G. Clark for all the effort he put into creating an index for our book, Bruce Township Laneways and Landmarks. We hope that this complete name index will provide a useful tool for researchers interested in Bruce Township and its families.

Notes

- ❖ Where the book used variant spellings of a name, this index shows the same variants with the pages(s) where each appeared.
- ❖ The land records used various abbreviations which appear in the index. For example, Jno for John, Jas for James, Geo for George, Alex'r for Alexander, Arch or Arch'd for Archibald, Wm for William, Chas for Charles, etc.
- ❖ Middle initials were not always used.
- ❖ Some women are only listed under their maiden names.
- ❖ Pages listed as Roman Numerals refer to the material at the front of the book.

Laneways and Landmarks is about farmsteads and is filled with 600 documentations of farmsteads, 600 narrative farm stories and 500 photos of farm buildings and people. The oldest photos date back to the 1800s, and many of the photos used are from the early 1900s.

Laneways and Landmarks is available from several shops around the Bruce Township area, from the Society at the address below, or by ordering via [www.bruce township.ca](http://www.bruce township.ca).
